

Remarks/Arguments

In our reply to Office Action of June 22, 2006 we were attempting to amend Claim 11, but erroneously listed Claim 11 as canceled. Since we also amended Claim 11 in that same reply, this presented two versions of Claim 11, a canceled one and a currently amended one.

In our reply of Office Action of August 18, 2006 we attempted to explain this typographical error and also to further amend Claim 11 according to rules, regulations, laws, and/or policy as shown on your official website by showing the previously presented Claim 11 and the currently amended Claim 11. We are trying to comply correctly with our reply to Office Action of November 20, 2006 by showing Claims 1-10 as canceled as well as deleting the text as requested and Claims 11-18 as previously presented, since Claim 11 was shown as being currently amended in our Reply to Office Action of August 18, 2006 and is not being amended in our Reply to Office Action of November 20, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
